

Cleveland Transfer Connection Program
Cleveland State University and Cuyahoga Community College present

Constructing Pathways for Engaged Learning and Academic Success

Tuesday, June 8, 2010

8:00–10:00 am

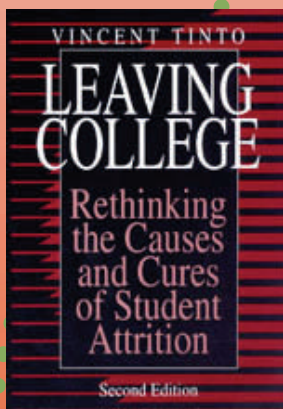

Keynote

Dr. Vincent Tinto

Distinguished University Professor Syracuse University

What matters is not merely whether individuals are able to begin college, but whether they are able to finish college.

~Vincent Tinto

Widely known for his research on higher education student retention, Professor Tinto's current research builds on his publication Leaving College and focuses on the positive impact of learning communities on the academic achievements of college students in urban, two and four-year colleges.

Dr. Tinto will discuss:

- How to keep students engaged and in school
- How to engage faculty and students in active and collaborative learning
- Why and how Learning Communities work

Registration is limited and free to Cleveland Transfer Connection Program Faculty and Staff.
For more information and details, visit csuohio.edu/learningcommunities or call 216-687-4700.