

ODAMA
FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE RETENTION INITIATIVE
STUDENT APPLICATION

The Office of Diversity and Multicultural Affairs (ODAMA) is committed to more than recruiting and retaining a diverse student body. The Financial Assistance Retention Initiative is an effort to retain undergraduate students who demonstrate financial need and scholastic potential. Financial assistance is provided to students on a one-time basis.

Please complete all items on the Student Application, submit it to ODAMA, Rhodes Tower 1254 and attach verification of your current course registration. Your application will be reviewed by the ODAMA Student Retention Committee, and you will be notified by phone upon approval or denial of your request. Funds are applied directly to your student account or the CSU Bookstore.

Criteria: At time of application, student must be in a degree granting college, have completed at least 50 semester hours, have attended the last full academic year at CSU, and hold a minimum of 2.2 grade point average.
